

OUR LEARNER PROFILE

We have a curriculum designed to develop the qualities identified in our learner profile, where each element is reflected across each subject, each year group and through curriculum enrichment and enhancements that take place throughout the year.

A MELLING LEARNER IS:

CURIOS ABOUT THE WORLD AROUND THEM:

We shall nurture curiosity, the joy of asking questions and searching for answers. Children will know how to learn independently and with others, to learn with enthusiasm across all subjects – thus laying the foundation for becoming a lifelong learner.

Creative

Imaginative

Questioning

REFLECTIVE AND IMAGINATIVE THINKER

We shall promote thinking in its many forms. Learners shall use critical and creative thinking skills to take responsible action across a range of challenges. Children will explore, predict, make choices, investigate, analyse and conclude in order to solve problems; as well as revel in a world of imagination.

MOTIVATED TO LEARN AND RESILIENT WHEN CHALLENGED

Through well-informed and high quality, diagnostic teaching, children will be excited to learn and determined to achieve goals and targets set for them and by them. They will see opportunities to further their learning when they are successful and in the times when they may get things wrong...not being afraid to take risks. A 'can-do not can't do' approach will be celebrated to promote resilience and perseverance.

Independent & Self disciplined

Ambitious

LITERATE, NUMERATE AND DIGITAL

We will place a very strong emphasis and weighting on developing and mastering literacy and numeracy skills, with the view to such skills being applied across the curriculum. Reading will be at the heart of learning – reading for comprehension, for pleasure and for information gathering. Learners will follow a computing curriculum that will develop the foundations of digital learning and keeping safe in the online world.
